To My Fellow Citizens and Voters of Jackson County.

You are aware of the fact that I am a candidate for County Court Clerk for Jackson County, the election to be held Thursday, August 1st, next.

I have done my best to see as many of the voters of the county as possible since I begun the campaign, but owing to my crippled condition, I have not been able to see as many as I would have, if I had had two good feet, for you know I can't climb the hills and get over the rough places like a young man with sound limbs, so I was compelled to pass on by some of you without seeing you and soliciting your support.

I now make this appeal to each and every voter of Jackson county to be sure and go to the polls and cast one more vote for me, this time, for in all probability, I will never call on you again, whether defeated or elected. You know my condition, you know my qualifications for the position, and it is useless for me to say that I will make you a good officer, and that I will forever remember your kindness to me in the hour of need. I know you will not let "old Shack" go down in defeat.

With many, many thanks in advance, I am your obedient servant.

John P. Gailbreath.

ORDER SUGAR BOWL OFF DINING TABLES

HOTELS, RESTAURANTS, CAFES OR PLACES WHERE MEALS ARE SERVED FOR PAY CAN NOT HAVE SUGAR BOWL ACCESSIBLE

Patrons' Service For Drinks Is Limited To One and One-Half Teaspoonsful of Sugar, Or Two Loaves of Lump Sugar.

Nashville, Tenn.—Sugar bowls have been banished from the tables of all public eating places under an edict issued by Dr. H. A. Morgan, federal food administrator for Tennessee. No hotel, restaurant, boarding house, cafe or place where meals are regularly served for pay, can longer have the sugar bowl, where it is accessible to the patrons. Every patron is limited to a service for his drinks of one and one-half teaspoons of sugar or where lump sugar is used to two loaves. For fruit or berries not more than one and one-half teaspoons may be served to any customer. This order grows out of the desperate sugar shortage. It has been in effect in Nashville, Knoxville and other places for some time and has resulted in an immense saving of sugar.

At the annual meeting of the Tennessee Hotel association in Nashville, this sugar ration was approved and the cooperation of all loyal hotel men was pledged. Dr. Morgan in its enforcement. J. I. Finney, of the food administration, addressed the hotel men and thanked them for the splendid cooperation that they have given the food administration. Every official, federal, state and local, has been summoned to aid in the enforcement of the sugar rationing plan.

Hardware and Implement Men.

Dr. Morgan, federal food administrator, will be one of the principal speakers at the annual convention of the Tennessee Hardware and Implement Dealers at the Hotel Hermitage, Nashville, on August 7, and will urge that the implement dealers co-operate with the food administration in furnishing the farmers with all possible labor-saving machinery. Another federal food administrator, in the person of Hon. Rump Williams, of Arkansas, will also speak at this meeting. It is expected that as the result of the meeting the implement dealers of Tennessee will be organized as an auxiliary of the food administration.

Mill Feed Prices.

Under the schedule of prices announced by the federal food administration in Tennessee, mixed mill feed should not sell in ton lots or over from the mill to the consumer at over $22 per ton. If sold in less than ton lots a dollar may be added. If delivered another dollar may be charged. Where bran is sold the mill must charge $1.25 per ton less than for mixed feed. If they sell shorts, middlings or red dog they may charge 75 cents per ton more than for mixed feeds. This means that practically all over the state the consumer should buy from the mill bran at not to exceed $1.55 per hundred. Shorts in like manner at about $1.75 per hundred and mixed feed at around $1.65 per hundred pounds. It is announced that these prices must be observed. All patriotic citizens, officials and food administrators are urged to report excessive charges for all mill feeds, so that the food administration can discipline the parties who are guilty of overcharges.

Many Are Fined.

Hotels and eating places in Knoxville have been fined sums aggregating $210 by Fayette F. Vandewater, city food administrator, for violating the rules of the federal food administration. The checks have all been mailed to the Red Cross canteen at Knoxville. The Union Grocery company of Nashville, has been fined $25 for the benefit of the Red Cross at Nashville for having sold over two pounds of sugar to city customers. The Surbage Produce company, of Johnson City, cited before James H. Epps, Jr., food administrator of Washington county, was fined $25 because its store at Jonesboro failed to candle eggs as required by the regulations. This fine was also paid over to the Red Cross. Since the beginning of the federal food administration in Tennessee thousands of dollars have been collected in fines and paid over to the Red Cross.

License Revoked.

The license of the Farmers' Hay & Grain company at Harriman, Tenn., has been revoked by the food administration for failure to observe the regulations and the company forbidden to transact any further business under all of the penalties of the food control act.

Cleveland Meeting.

Combining the work of the food administration and the celebration of France's liberty, Sunday, July 14, was observed by the patriotic people of Bradley county with a big patriotic mass meeting at the courthouse. The speaker of the occasion was J. I. Finney, of the federal food administration. On the day previous Mr. Finney and Prof. R. K. Morgan, of Fayetteville, and Miss Virginia Pearl Moore, all addressed a big food administration rally at Wonder Cave, Grundy county.

Why Suffer?

Mrs. J. A. Cox, of Anderson, W. Va., writes: "My daughter... suffered terribly. She could not turn in bed... the doctors gave her up, and we brought her home to die. She had suffered so much at... time. Having heard of Cardui, we got it for her."

CARDUI

The Woman's Tonic

"In a few days, she began to improve," Mrs. Cox continues, "and had no trouble at... Cardui cured her, and we sing its praises everywhere. We receive many thousands of similar letters every year, telling of the good Cardui has done for women who suffer from complaints so common to their sex. It should do you good, too. Try Cardui. E-77
